Cambridge, MA—American Repertory Theater (A.R.T.) at Harvard University announces today May and June “destinations” in Tokyo, Buenos Aires, Lagos, London, and New York City in its A.R.T. Travels program featuring one-of-a-kind experiences and conversations with theater-makers. A.R.T. Travels is a virtual version of the popular program that brings fans from across the country and around the world to see the theater’s boundary-breaking global reach first-hand.

A.R.T. Travels events are now on sale with an all-inclusive A.R.T. Passport ($250) for access to every event offered now through June 2021—including any not yet announced, and build-your-own-itinerary individual tickets ($15-$50) at are AmericanRepertoryTheater.org/ARTTravels.

Free A.R.T. Student Passports are available to all high school and college students. To reserve a Student Passport, please email TicketServices@amrep.org with the student’s name, email address, and a photo of their student ID. Teachers looking to reserve Student Passports for their class should email DonorEmails@amrep.org.

APRIL EVENTS

• FRIDAY, APRIL 9 AT 9AM ET (previously announced)
NEW YORK CITY: MINDFULNESS WORKSHOP
With Kei Tsuruharatani
Each actor has their own ritual and mindfulness practice before stepping out onto the stage and preparing to take on a new role. But mindfulness is not just relaxation and stress management techniques; it is the foundation of how we live everyday. Join Kei Tsuruharatani (Jagged Little Pill) in a guided mindfulness workshop and exchange feedback on how this practice can help those onstage and off.

• WEDNESDAY, APRIL 14 AT 7PM ET (previously announced)
NEW YORK CITY: A NIGHT AT THE PUBLIC THEATER
With Yuvika Tolani
Public Theater Director of Producing Yuvika Tolani joins A.R.T. Artistic Producer Mark Lunsford to discuss the shift in making dynamic theater in this digital age. Learn about the unique challenges and lessons learned in presenting new digital works while remaining committed to deepening relationships with artists and members of our community.

• MONDAY, APRIL 19 AT 4PM ET (previously announced)
NEW YORK CITY: ACTING IN SONG MASTERCLASS
With Elizabeth Stanley
Tony and Grammy Award nominee Elizabeth Stanley (Jagged Little Pill) offers a class combining vocal training with song interpretation through the exploration of material from the world of musical theater, classical music, Top 40s pop, and more! Through observation, some one-on-one coaching, and a brief Q&A, attendees will learn more about combining both disciplines to give convincing and moving performances. Limited participant as well as observer slots are available for this course.

MAY EVENTS

- THURSDAY, APRIL 22 AT 9AM ET
  LONDON: THEATER AND ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT
  With Vicky Featherstone
  Celebrate Earth Day with the A.R.T. and Artistic Director of London’s Royal Court Theatre, Vicky Featherstone. In conversation with Executive Producer Diane Borger, Featherstone will discuss the Royal Court’s commitment to transitioning to net zero carbon dioxide emissions by examining every part of the theater’s practice and pushing it into a circular economy that reduces, offsets, and neutralizes its climate impact.

- TUESDAY, APRIL 27 AT 12PM ET (previously announced)
  NEW YORK CITY: JAGGED LITTLE PILL DANCE PARTY
  With Marc Kimelman
  Dance to your favorite Jagged Little Pill numbers with Associate Choreographer Marc Kimelman. Spend 90 minutes rehearsing choreography from the show, hearing stories about the Broadway production, and ending the class with a Q&A. This class is designed to include all skills and dance abilities! Dancers are more than welcome to practice with their videos on or off.

MAY EVENTS

- FRIDAY, MAY 14 AT 4PM ET
  NEW YORK CITY: MUSICAL AUDITION WORKSHOP
  With Laurel Harris
  Connect more deeply and personally with the lyrics of your musical audition material in this virtual masterclass with Laurel Harris (Jagged Little Pill, Wicked) in which she’ll coach participants on their 32 bars, offer tips on audition techniques, and answer questions. Observers will learn too, as everyone gains new insights into how to captivate an audience and sing with more emotional authenticity. Limited Participant and Observer tickets are available.

- THURSDAY, MAY 20 AT 8PM ET
  TOKYO: ACTOR TALKBACK
  With Yu Shiroma
  Join actor and singer Yu Shiroma (Pippin, Tokyo 2019) and Terrie and Bradley Bloom Artistic Director Diane Paulus in a creative conversation about the process to bring the first Japanese-language production of A.R.T.’s Tony Award-winning hit production of Pippin to the Tokyu Theatre Orb in Tokyo.

- WEDNESDAY, MAY 26 AT 4PM ET
  BUENOS AIRES: TANGO WORKSHOP WITH DANCERS FROM ARRABAL
  With Soledad Buss, Cesar Peral, and Sergio Trujillo
  Learn to tango with Soledad Buss and Cesar Peral, two of the lead dancers from A.R.T.’s hit production of Arrabal, the tango-infused dance-theater piece that stunned A.R.T. audiences four years ago, in this sixty-minute workshop that features an introduction from director and co-choreographer Sergio Trujillo.

JUNE EVENTS

- TUESDAY, JUNE 1 at 7:30PM ET
  TOKYO: WAITRESS Creatives Roundtable
  With Abbey O’Brien, Ryan Cantwell, and Mahlon Kruse
Join Terrie and Bradley Bloom Artistic Director Diane Paulus and members of the creative team who opened the Japanese-language version of Waitress, the first production of the A.R.T.-originated hit musical to reopen since the COVID-19 global shutdown. Hear stories from Abbey O'Brien (Associate Choreographer), Ryan Cantwell (Music Director), Mahlon Kruse (Stage Manager), and Paulus about working collaboratively across New York City, the UK, and Tokyo to bring Waitress to life in March 2021.

• WEDNESDAY, JUNE 2 AT 4PM ET
NEW YORK CITY: ACTING WITH TEXT - TAKING A CLASSICAL APPROACH
With Sean Allan Krill
Bring more power to your classical performances with this virtual masterclass with Tony Award nominee Sean Allan Krill (Jagged Little Pill). Through observation, some one-on-one coaching of Shakespearean texts, and a Q&A, participants and observers will develop techniques to give more convincing and moving performances. Participants will be given a choice of scenes to work with in advance of the class. Limited Participant and Observer tickets are available.

• THURSDAY, JUNE 10 at 4PM ET
LAGOS: DIRECTOR TALKBACK
With Ifeoma Fafunwa
Having partnered with the A.R.T to bring HEAR WORD! Naija Woman Talk True on a multi-stop international tour, writer-director-producer Ifeoma Fafunwa sits down with A.R.T. Executive Producer Diane Borger to discuss the ongoing life of this production that continues to reach audiences around the world, her work as the Mary I. Bunting Fellow at Harvard University, and what’s next for her production company, iOpenEye.

• THURSDAY, JUNE 17 12PM ET
LONDON: EXPLORE CHEKHOV’S THREE SISTERS
With Inua Ellams
Following his smash-hit production of Barber Shop Chronicles, playwright Inua Ellams reconnects with A.R.T. audiences to discuss his critically acclaimed new adaptation of Chekov’s Three Sisters, set in eastern Nigeria during the 1967-1970 Nigerian Civil War. A.R.T. Executive Producer Diane Borger moderates a lively conversation with the playwright and an actor from the National Theatre’s 2019 premiere production.

• MONDAY, JUNE 21 12PM ET
LONDON: INTERACTIVE THEATER BUILDING TOURS
Led by architects from Haworth Tompkins and theater consultants from Charcoalblueme, experience live tours of some of London’s most dynamic theaters, as well as interactive 3D-projection mapping that you can navigate from your own screen to explore what happens behind the curtains.

In addition, in the coming months A.R.T. will also be facilitating A.R.T. Travel experiences for community partners with Jagged Little Pill cast members Maiya Blaney, Ken Clark, and DeAnne Stewart.

ABOUT THE AMERICAN REPERTORY THEATER

American Repertory Theater (A.R.T.) at Harvard University is a leading force in the American theater, producing groundbreaking work that is driven by risk-taking and passionate inquiry. A.R.T. was founded in 1980 by Robert Brustein, who served as Artistic Director until 2002, when he was succeeded by Robert Woodruff. Diane Paulus began her tenure as Artistic Director in 2008. Under the leadership of Paulus as the Terrie and Bradley Bloom Artistic Director and Executive Producer Diane Borger, A.R.T. seeks to expand the boundaries of theater by programming transformative theatrical experiences, always including the audience as a central partner. A.R.T. is committed to a long-term process of centering anti-racism in its practice, policies, culture, pedagogy, governance and organizational structure.

Throughout its history, A.R.T. has been honored with many distinguished awards including the Tony Award for Best New Play for All the Way (2014); consecutive Tony Awards for Best Revival of a Musical for Pippin (2013) and The Gershwins’ Porgy and Bess (2012), both of which Paulus directed, and sixteen other Tony Awards since 2012; a Pulitzer Prize; a Jujamcyn Prize for outstanding contribution to the development of creative talent; the Regional Theater Tony Award; and more than 100 Elliot Norton and IRNE Awards. Additional Broadway productions include Jagged Little Pill; Waitress (also US National Tour and in London’s West End); Natasha, Pierre & The Great Comet of 1812; and Finding Neverland. Under Paulus’s leadership, A.R.T.’s club theater, OBERON, has been recognized annually as a top performance venue in the Boston area, and has attracted national attention for its innovative programming and business models.

As the professional theater on the campus of Harvard University, A.R.T. is committed to playing a central role in the cognitive life of the University, catalyzing discourse, interdisciplinary collaboration, and creative exchange among a wide range of academic departments, institutions, students, and faculty members. A.R.T. is engaged in a number of multi-year initiatives with partners at Harvard that explore some of the most pressing issues of our day, including collaborations with the Harvard University Center for the Environment to develop new work that addresses climate change and with the Healthy Buildings Program at the Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health to develop a Roadmap for Recovery and Resilience for Theater that prioritizes a commitment to ethics, equity, and anti-racism as a guiding principle. A.R.T. plays a central role in Harvard’s undergraduate Theater, Dance & Media concentration, teaching courses in directing, dramatic literature, acting, voice, design, and dramaturgy. A.R.T. staff also mentors students in the Harvard Radcliffe Dramatic Club working at the Loeb Drama Center and OBERON.

Dedicated to making great theater accessible, A.R.T. actively engages more than 5,000 community members and local students annually in project-based partnerships, workshops, conversations with artists, and other enrichment activities both at the theater and across the Greater Boston area.

A.R.T. acknowledges that its theaters are situated on the traditional and ancestral homelands of the Massachusett Tribe.
